Peace Armies in Desert

Two Aspects of Constructive Work by U.N. in Middle East

By LADY HILLMAN
OF BARNWOOD

As a result of the UN. work in the Middle East, the UN. has been able to bring about a state of peace in the area.

Of the three Arab countries, the UN. has been able to bring about a state of peace in the area.

My next flight was into the Golan Heights. All at once I found myself in the company of the United Nations Truce Supervision Force.

Here, for the first time in history, the UN. has been able to bring about a state of peace in the area.

As a by-product, this remarkable army has brought about a state of peace in the area.

MUSICAL DIARY

Too Conventional

With a concert of Chamber Music, the UN. has been able to bring about a state of peace in the area.

A CERTAIN conventionality was clearly evident in the playing of the hard-working New Israeli quartet.

The most captivating item was Shostakovich's piano concerto.

VERY COMPLICATED SITUATION

Enigmatic Tito Misses the Mark

In advocating the implementation of the U.N. resolution, Tito has missed the mark.

Yugoslavia's position is a complex one. It is a country that is caught between the East and the West.

MARGINAL COMMENT

Uncle Vanya's Message

By Sraja Shapiro

Did Haiman do well in presenting "Uncle Vanya"? The answer seems very much to depend on the few who were present at the Hebrew stage.

It was there? Was the trouble simply that the message which Haiman of the theatre like to attribute to Chokhov just left us cold?

BECOME of the opinion that a living theatre should try and convey a message from the stage to the audience.

LIKE Chokhov's short stories, "Uncle Vanya" is a near-to-theatre satire on people who are not happy because they are not happy.

WAS it not funny, these provincial, well-to-do intellectuals, who discovered their unhappiness only after the arrival in their midst of a derelict couple from the bright Capital?

work, which was not the work of the theatre.

ALL over the place, here, from Dan to Beersheva, there are many thousands of these middle-class, middle-aged, middle-minded people.

THE situation may not be exactly the same as that described by Chokhov.

BETWEEN the differences, there is the common human aspiration for recognition. History abounds in reminders of what happens when moral recognition is overruled by people, whether or not they are happy.

THIS message of Uncle Vanya for us today may not be identical with the message Chokhov conveyed to his own people.
